Article 360-If the President is satisfied that a situation has arisen whereby the financial stability or credit of India or any part of the Territory thereof is threatened, he may by a Proclamation make a declaration of Financial Emergency.

34.Ans. (d)

Under Article 352 of the Constitution if the President is satisfied that a grave emergency exists, where by the security of India or any part of the Territory thereof is threatened, whether, by war, external aggression or armed rebellion, he can declare the National Emergency. The word Internal disturbance has been replaced by Armed rebellion in 44 Constitutional Amendment Act, 1978 of the Constitution.

35.Ans.(c)

This Emergency refers to a 21 month period from 1975 to 1977 when Prime Minister Indira Gandhi had a state of Emergency declared across the country .Officially declared by President Fakhruddin Ali Ahmed under Article 352 of the Constitution because of Prevailing internal disturbances. The Emergency was in effect from 25 June 1975 until it was withdrawn on 21 March 1977. Originally, the Constitution mentioned internal disturbances as the third ground for proclamation of National Emergency, but the expression was too vague and had a wider connotation. Hence the 44th Amendment Act of 1978 substituted the word armed rebellion for internal disturbances. Thus it is no longer possible to declare National Emergency on the grounds of internal disturbances as was done earlier in 1975.
